

Picture A Story Illustrator Visit

On Thursday 8th March A group of Thomas Coram School pupils went on a visit to the School's Library Service to see Mini Grey and her amazing creativity in her books. This took place at Hatfield, they arrived at 12.45 and left at 3.00. They had an amazing time making up characters. Here are some pictures above that the Thomas Coram pupils made up, with the help of other school pupils.

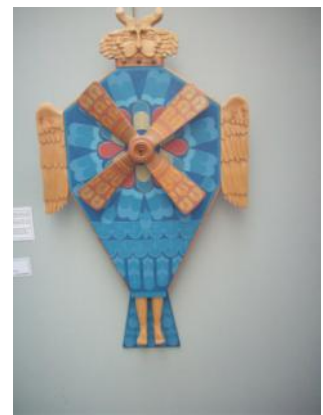

One of the pupils called Maya Withey from Thomas Coram said ,“ I had an amazing time ,but I am sad that I won't be able to go again because Herts School's Library Service is closing at the end of March. I had a great time and I really liked Mini Grey. She had a great sense of humour and she was really fun to be around. ”

It seems that a lot of the pupils had a great time but are extremely sad that they wont be able to go again. Her books were really inspiring and were very interesting and it was great how Mini Grey writes her books and illustrates them. Using her imagination Mini Grey is able to come up with book characters from real life objects .

Before the school pupils went to see Mini Grey, they went on an art trail, here are some images of the paintings that were there:
