

ENGLISH IN ACTION

SESSION THIS WEEK!

English in Action READING

Friday January 11th 2019 9:00AM

Would you like to know more about how English is taught at Thomas Coram School?

If so, our English in Action workshops are for you!

Following on from a series of successful workshops last year, we are again running English in Action workshops on Reading, Spelling and Writing. These sessions will explain how each subject is planned and taught, offer the opportunity to see what a lesson looks like and suggest how you can best support your child's learning.

There will, of course, be an opportunity to ask any questions that you might have and refreshments will be provided too.
